Dear Mr. Andrey Kortunov,

I am writing to thank you for your participation in the 2012 World Peace Forum at Tsinghua University in Beijing, and for your presentation in the panels on the themes of “Trends in International Security” and “Security of Energy Supply”. We all appreciate the time and effort that so clearly went into the preparation of your presentation. It made a powerful impact and inspired what I believe was immensely useful and important discussion. I am grateful to you for agreeing to entertain questions from the floor and for the clarity and detail of your responses.

Thank you again for your tremendous personal contribution to this success.

Sincerely yours,

Dean
