Dear Andrey,

Also on behalf of our Chairman, Prof. Giulio Tremonti, I would like to thank you for your participation in the international conference focused on Assessing risk: business in global disorder, held in London last May 17-18.

The meeting aimed at discussing a series of strategic issues for the business community. The increasing global risk for businesses is linked to the growing complexity of the economic system, the emergence of new actors, the rapid technological change, the international scenario and its unforeseen effects. The debate, in our opinion, was lively and constructive and interventions were frank, open and provocative.

Naturally, this event had a great success thanks to the high-level participants who gave their contribution in building a very interesting discussion. Moreover, your remarks were very much appreciated from the participants.

Finally, I would also take this opportunity to inform you that the next edition of the conference - as announced by Aspen Institute Italia and Chatham House in London - will be held in Venice on March 8-9, 2019. We very much hope you will save the dates in your agenda.

In looking forward to meeting you soon, I send my best regards.

Marta Dassù
